

Dr. Dorothy T.F. CHAN *BBS, PhD HK; FCILT

Dr. Dorothy T.F. Chan is the Deputy Director, School of Professional and Continuing Education, University of Hong Kong and Head of Centre for Logistics & Transport.

Dr. Chan retired as the Deputy Commissioner for Transport of the HKSAR Government in 2002 and has since been engaged in the education field and research topics on China and overseas transport projects. She is a Member of International Steering Group on Mega Projects of Bartlett School of Planning of the University College London.

Dr. Chan is a Council Member of the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport, Chairperson of Membership & Education Committee of International Council and a Fellow of the Centre of Urban Studies and Urban Planning, University of Hong Kong. She obtained her Bachelor of Social Sciences degree from the University of Hong Kong, and further obtained a Master degree and Doctorate degree in Public Administration with her alma mater.

Dr. Chan is closely involved in training and professional development in the field of transport and public administration. She is currently an Honorary Assistant Professor in the University of Hong Kong delivering the Master of Arts Programme in Transport Policy and Planning, an Adjunct Professor, Department of Civil and Structural Engineering of the Polytechnic University of Hong Kong, External Academic Advisor for B SocSc (Hons) Policy Studies and Administration/Transport Programme, City University of Hong Kong and a Project Specialist of Bauhinia Foundation Research Centre.

Dr. Chan is a Member of Social Welfare Advisory Committee, a Member of Advisory Council on Environment, a Member of Lump Sum Grant Independent Review Committee, an Adjudicator of Immigration Tribunal and School Manager of St. Clare's Girls' School. She was awarded Bronze Bauhinia Star by the HKSAR Government in 2002.