

Mrs. Anna LAI

Mrs. Anna Lai is the Director of Prime Prime International Ltd., a Hong Kong-based business strategy and training consultancy firm. She was the Deputy Executive Director of the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, where she worked for 30 years. During her office, she had been taking charge of various departments, including research, industry promotion, international conferences, e-commerce, communications and advertising and human resources. Her contributions to the support of small and medium enterprises were especially note-worthy.

Since 1985, Mrs. Lai has started traveling in the mainland for business and has established extensive connections within China and overseas. She is a popular speaker.

Mrs. Lai obtained her Bachelor of Social Sciences Degree from the University of Hong Kong in 1972. She completed an Executive Program in the Graduate School of Business, Stanford University in 1994, and a Public Bodies Executive Development Programme in the National School of Administration, People's Republic of China in 1997.

Mrs. Lai is currently serving as a Member of the Lingnan University's Social Sciences Advisory Board, a Trustee Member of Epson Foundation, a Member of Management Committee of the Hong Kong University's Azalea (1972) Endowment Fund, and a Member of General Support Programme Vetting Committee under the HKSARG's Innovation and Technology Fund.

Previously, she had served as a Member of the HKSARG's Small and Medium Enterprises Committee and a Member of the Statistics Advisory Board.